There are many great features and conference information loaded to the mobile app. One of the features allows for the opportunity to increase brand recognition and put your product information in the hands of your current and potential customers before, during, and after the AEEC | AMC Event. This opportunity includes links to your company's Internet, Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn sites. Additional information includes such details as a brief description of your company, your company logo, and any PDF Advertisement and/or slipsheets of products and services your company would like to share.
